Message from JA HK

Take something you are passionate about, be it a hobby, a social group or a value. Can you recall your first encounter with it?

JA Company Programme (JA CP) has been providing thousands of local students their first encounter with business. Whether their strengths and passions are on dreaming about new products, leading people, managing finance, running logistics or operations, or finding a solution to a social problem, they will be guided to explore and experience.

The learning from the 8-month journey would sparkle some who are aspired to be future entrepreneurs, as well as those who may become intrapreneurs serving established organizations. Society would benefit from innovative and proactive minds in different roles.

Besides equipping students with functional skills, we do hope to inspire them to "rethink" business, e.g. sustainability, business ethics, leadership, social innovations. Young people are our future leaders and would be the ones to help "redefine" the roles of business for the betterment of the society.

Running for the 14th year, JA CP has enabled about 22,000 students to acquire the entrepreneurial mindset and learn the real world of business. We would like to congratulate the 88 JA Companies that joined JA CP 2016/17, in particular the JA Company of the Year finalists and all the individual and team award winners.

JA HK is most grateful for the generous support of our sponsors, Henderson Land, HSBC, Cisco, Seeds Foundation, Telstra, and Bloomberg, over 180 business advisors, 95 link teachers, 22 adult coordinators, the Commission on Youth, the Education Bureau, the Leisure and Cultural Services Department, and other program partners and supporting organizations for making the entrepreneurial journey a reality for the 88 JA Companies!

Message from Mr Martin Lee, Vice Chairman Henderson Land Development Company Limited

Henderson Land is a proud advocate of helping young people in our society to reach their potential through diversified education. We support various important long-term youth development initiatives that inspire our younger generation to give back to the local community. We believe that entrepreneurship education can inspire and empower, enabling individuals to pursue their own dreams for the good of society.

We are delighted to be a sponsor of the JA Company Programme and JA Startmeup Summer Boot Camp. These initiatives align closely with our aspiration of nurturing entrepreneurial talent who can contribute to the prosperity and sustainable development of Hong Kong's economy and society. The JA Company Programme provides entrepreneurial learning for young people aged 14 to 18, giving them hands-on experience of running a real business over an eight-month period. More than 1,700 students from 130 schools have already benefitted from the Programme, gaining first-hand experience of starting a business under the capable guidance of 180 volunteer business advisors. It is a fun and inspiring experience that has provided an invaluable opportunity for these students to unleash their entrepreneurial spirit, while developing business, financial, marketing, leadership and communication skills.

I would like to congratulate all students for participating so enthusiastically in this learning opportunity. We appreciate your efforts and the innovative ideas you have contributed to the Programme. I believe it has shown you the merits of being entrepreneurially-minded and taking ownership of your own destinies. I hope you will continue to reach for your dreams and become promising leaders in the years to come. I take this opportunity to wish you every success in your careers ahead.

Message from Mr Daniel Chan, Head of Business Banking, Hong Kong The Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited

Entrepreneurship education is an essential component of career and life planning for our young people, who are the pillar of our society in future. By nurturing entrepreneurial spirit and equipping them with financial knowledge, it will help increase the vibrancy of Hong Kong and raise its competitiveness in the global economies.

HSBC has been a great supporter to the development of entrepreneurship in Hong Kong since 1865, nurturing many business owners to thrive and the Hong Kong economy to prosper. It is also a pleasure for us to partner with Junior Achievement Hong Kong in the past 15 years in organising Company Programme, nurturing creativity and strengthening entrepreneurship among students. Myself, and HSBC volunteers who take parts as business advisors, are all pleased to be part of this meaningful initiative.

The JA Company Programme offers a unique learning experience for the students. It provides a platform for students to unleash their potential in entrepreneurship. The Programme not only helps cultivate the pipeline of bright talents for society but more importantly, it also empowers and motivates the participants to strive for their goals.

On behalf of HSBC, I would like to thank Junior Achievement Hong Kong for bringing together a collaboration among the government, the corporate world and the not-for-profit sector, making this year's Programme soaring new heights. My thanks also go to the volunteer business advisors and teachers, whose contributions are vital to the success of this meaningful Programme.

Last but not least, I would like to congratulate all participants for taking part in this Programme and wish you all the very best in your future endeavours. I trust the experience you gained from the Programme would enlighten your life journey in the years to come.
